Objectives of the Masonry Contractors Australia Association (MCA)

Unify, Advance and Lead

We aim to:

- a) Provide a united and collaborative voice for the Masonry Industry within the Australian Building & Construction Industry, including with a view to enhancing the professional status of our Members.
- b) Secure national recognition for the Masonry Industry as a certified building industry element within the Australian Building & Construction Industry.
- c) Promote the professional standing of the Masonry Industry throughout Australia.
- d) Secure and maintain favourable trade relations with Masonry Industry stakeholders, including but not limited to:
 - a. Principals and head contractors;
 - b. Employers, employees and contractors;
 - c. Public authorities and government;
 - d. Training organisations;
 - e. Manufacturers; and
 - f. Suppliers or distributors of goods, materials and services either within Australia or abroad.
- e) Assist our Members to meet or exceed stakeholders expectations.
- f) Foster equitable and productive conditions of contract, forms or agreement, tendering and associated documentation or arrangements for the Masonry Industry.
- g) Advocate for the interests of our Members, and to protect our Members against injustice or oppression.

- h) Supply information which enables Members to be leaders in their field and offer customers the highest level of work practices, guarantees and ethics.

Promote Skills and Safety

We aim to:

- a) Educate our Members and develop nationally recognised standards in relation to effective industrial relations policy, ethics and best business and practice in the building industry, with a particular focus on the Masonry Industry.
- b) Encourage and preserve skills with the Masonry Industry, including by fostering and supporting a proficient system of quality apprenticeship and technical training education for the Masonry Industry.

And to undertake and pursue all such similar, related or compatible Objectives as the Association may from time to time consider appropriate.

Members' General Obligations

Each Member must co-operate with all other Members and the Executive Committee in good faith, use all reasonable endeavors to ensure that the Association's business is conducted successfully in order to achieve the Objects; at all times act in good faith in relation to the Member's activities and dealings with the other Members, the Executive Committee and the Association; not use, disclose or share confidential information or allow confidential information to be used, disclosed or shared in a manner reasonably likely to be detrimental to the interests of the Association or its business, or the interests of another Member or Executive Committee; and not unreasonably delay any action, determination or decision which is required of a Member under this Constitution.
